Wednesday	Corlough	11am – 12noon
Friday	Bawnboy	5pm – 7pm.

Sick and Housebound. Fr Sean hopes to visit the sick and housebound on Thursday afternoon and at the usual times on Friday.

Thank you. On behalf of all the parishioners, I wish to sincerely thank everyone who give of their time and energy to ensure that our parish is run efficiently. I'm thinking in particular of the sacristans, the choirs, finance officers, the Finance committee, Parish Pastoral Council, liturgy committee, the readers, Eucharistic ministers, Altar Servers, offertory collectors, counters and those who lodge and take a record of the offerings, the teachers and Boards of Management of our schools and those who look after the newsletter and the cemeteries and who decorate our churches. On a personal note, I thank you for your warm welcome and for making me feel at home in this parish.

Fr Sean.

Sunday Funerals: The Pastoral Council discussed in detail the issue of Sunday funerals at its recent meeting. From the 1st January 2020, funeral Masses will no longer be celebrated on a Sunday. This is due to many practical reasons. The practice of having removals on a Saturday or Sunday evening will continue. The Council hopes that this will not be a major inconvenience to bereaved families at such a difficult time in their lives.
